MEDIA RELEASE

The Pakistan Football Federation Normalisation Committee has reconstituted certain Provincial Normalisation Committees and appointed a Normalisation Committee for the Gilgit-Baltistan FA with immediate effect.

The changes have been made in the Punjab FA Normalisation Committee, the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa FA Normalisation Committee and the Sindh FA Normalisation Committee. The changes have been made to ensure consistency in the number of members in all Provincial Normalisation Committees, while also seeking to address concerns regarding conflict of interest.

The PFF Normalisation Committee again stressed that it is striving to ensure that transparent elections of the PFF are held at the earliest with the expectation that it will usher in a new era in Pakistan football.
