- f) deduction of points;
- g) forfeiture;
- h) transfer ban;
- j) demotion to the next lower division

Article 14 – Warning

A warning is a reminder of the substance of a disciplinary rule allied with the threat of a sanction in the event of a further infringement.

Article 15 – Reprimand

A reprimand is an official written pronouncement of disapproval sent to the perpetrator of an infringement

Article 16 – Fine

- 1) The fine is issued in Pakistani Rupees (Rs). It shall be paid in the same currency.
- 2) The fine shall not be less than Rs 2000, or in the case of competition subject to an age limit not less than Rs 1000, and not more than Rs 2, 00, 000
- 3) The body that pronounces the sanction decides the terms and time limits for payment. If the fine is added to a match suspension, it shall be paid before the suspension has ended.
- 4) Member Associations are jointly liable for fines imposed on national team players and officials. The same applies to clubs in respect of their players and officials. The fact that the natural person has left a club or national association does not cancel out joint liability.

Article 17 - Return of Awards

1. The person required to return an award shall return all of the portions received in particular sums of money and symbolic objects (medal, trophy etc.)
2. The money received shall always be returned in full. The body pronouncing the sanction decides any interest that may be due as it sees fit.

FIRST TITLE. MATERIAL LAW CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PART

Article 18 - Caution

1. A caution (yellow card) is a warning from the referee to a player during a match to sanction unsporting behavior of a less serious nature (i.e. Law 12 of the Laws of the Game).
2. Two cautions received during the same match incur an expulsion (indirect red card, cf. art. 52 o) and, consequently, automatic suspension from the next match (cf. art. 19 par. 4). The two cautions that incurred the red card are rescinded.
3. The following incur automatic suspension from the subsequent match
 - (a) Three cautions received in three different matches of the same competition in U-17 competitions organized by PFF.
 - (b) Two cautions received in two different matches of the same competition in other championships subject to age limits organized by PFF.
 - (c) Two cautions received in two different matches of the same competition in every other championship;
 - (d) With regard to friendly competitions, cf. c).
4. The Disciplinary Committee may extend the duration of this suspension (cf. par.3).
5. If an abandoned match is to be replayed, any caution issued during that match shall be annulled. If the match is not to be replayed, the cautions received by the team responsible for causing the match to be abandoned are upheld; if both teams are responsible, all of the cautions are upheld.
6. If a player is guilty of serious unsporting behavior as defined in law 12 of the LAWS OF THE GAME and is sent off (direct red card), any other caution he has previously received in the same match is upheld.

Article 19 - Expulsion

1. An expulsion is the order given by the referee to someone to leave the field of play and its surroundings, including the substitutes' bench, during a match. The person who has been sent off may be allowed into the stands unless he is serving a stadium ban.
2. Expulsion takes the form of a red card for players. The red card is regarded as direct if it sanctions serious unsporting behavior as defined by Law 12 of the LAWS OF THE GAME; It is regarded as indirect if it is the result of an accumulation of two yellow cards (cf. art.18, par.2).

3. An official who has been sent off may give instructions to the person replacing him on the substitutes' bench. He shall, however, ensure that he does not disturb the spectators or disrupt the flow of play.
4. An expulsion automatically incurs suspension from the subsequent match, even if imposed in a match that is later abandoned and/or cancelled. The Disciplinary Committee may extend the duration of the suspension.

Article 20 – Match suspension

- 1) A suspension from a match is a ban on taking part in a future match or competition or to attend it in the area immediately surrounding the field of play.
- 2) The player who has been suspended shall not be included on the players' list for the match
- 3) The suspension is imposed in terms of matches, days or months. Unless otherwise specified, it may not exceed thirty-six (36) matches or three (3) years.
- 4) If the suspension is to be served in terms of matches, only those matches actually played count towards execution of the suspension. If a match is abandoned, cancelled or finally forfeited, suspension is only considered to have been served if the team to which the suspended player belongs is not responsible for the facts that led to abandonment, cancellation or forfeiture of the match.
- 5) If a suspension is combined with a fine, it is prolonged until the fine has been paid in full.

Article 21 – Ban from dressing rooms and/or substitutes' benches.

A ban from dressing rooms and/or substitutes' benches deprives someone of the right to enter teams' dressing rooms and/or the area immediately surrounding the field of play, and in particular to sit on the substitutes' bench.

Article 22 – Stadium ban

A stadium ban prohibits someone from entering the confines of one or several stadiums.

Article 23 – Ban on performing any football related activity

A person may be banned from performing any kind of football related activity (administrative, sports or any other).

Article 23^{ff} – Transfer ban

A transfer ban prevents a club from signing any player during the period in question.

Article 24 – Playing a match without spectators

The obligation to play a match behind closed doors requires Member Associations and clubs to have a certain match played without spectators.

Article 25 – Playing on neutral ground

The obligation to play a match on neutral ground requires Member Associations and clubs to have a certain match played in another country or in a different region of the same country.

Article 26 – Ban on playing in a particular stadium

A ban on playing in a certain stadium deprives Member Associations and clubs of the right to have their teams play in a certain stadium.

Article 27– Annulment of the result of a match

The result of a match is annulled if the result reached on the field of play is disregarded.

Article 28 – Exclusion

Exclusion is the deprivation of the right of Member Associations and clubs from taking part in a current and/or future PFF competitions.

Article 29 – Demotion to the next lower division

A club may be demoted to the next lower division.

Article 30 – Deduction of points

A national team or club may have points deducted from those already attained in any current PFF tournament.

Article 31 – Forfeit

- 1) Teams sanctioned with a forfeit are considered to have lost the match by 0-3.
- 2) If the goal difference is greater, the higher score is upheld.

Article 32 - Combined sanctions

1. Unless otherwise specified, the sanctions provided for in the general and special parts of this code may be combined.
2. In less serious cases, the body may only pronounce a reduced sanction or a caution or a reprimand.

Article 33 - Partial suspension of implementation of the sanction

1. The body that pronounces a match suspension (cf. art.20), a ban on access to dressing rooms and/or the substitutes' bench (cf. art.21) or a ban on playing in a certain stadium (cf.art.26) shall examine whether it is possible to suspend the implementation of the sanction partially.
2. Partial suspension is permissible only if the duration of the sanction does not exceed six matches or six months and if the circumstances generally allow it, in particular the previous record of the person sanctioned.
3. The body decides which part of the sanction may be suspended. In any case, half of the sanction is definite.
4. By suspending implementation of the sanction, the body subjects the person sanctioned to a probationary period of six months to two years.

5. If the person benefiting from a suspended sanction commits another infringement during the probationary period, the suspension is automatically revoked and the sanction applied; it is added to the sanction pronounced for the new infringement.

6. These stipulations are subject to special provisions.

Section 3 Common rules

Article 34 – Time sanctions: calculation of time limit

Rest periods during or between seasons are included in the duration of time sanctions.

Article 35 – Limitation period of sanctions

- 1) The limitation period for sanctions is five years.
- 2) The limitation period begins on the day on which the decision comes into force.

Article 36 – Centralization of sanctions

- 1) Records of cautions, expulsions and match suspensions are stored in the central system of PFF. The Disciplinary Committee secretariat confirms them in writing to the Member Association concerned or, in the case of final competitions, to the head of the delegation concerned.
- 2) This confirmation serves only as notification: sanctions (cautions, expulsions, automatic match suspensions) have an immediate effect on subsequent matches even if the letter of confirmation reaches the Member Association, club or head of delegation concerned later.

Section 4 Carrying over and canceling Cautions and match suspensions

Article 37 – Carrying over match suspensions

1. Cautions received during one competition are not carried over to another competition.
2. They are, however, carried over from one round to the next in the same competition. The Disciplinary Committee may exceptionally depart from this rule before the start of a particular competition. This provision is subject to art. 38.

Article 38 – Cancellation of cautions

1. At the request of a confederation, the Disciplinary Committee may cancel cautions that have not resulted in a match suspension so as to restore the balance among several teams that have not played the same number of matches during the first round of a competition, or in other exceptional circumstances.
2. In any case, the committee may do this only once in any competition.
3. The Disciplinary Committee's decision is final.

Article 39 – Carrying over match suspensions

- 1) As a general rule, every suspension (of players and other persons) is carried over from one round to the next in the same competition.
- 2) Match suspensions resulting from several cautions issued to a player in different matches of the same competition are never carried over to another competition.

- 3) Match suspensions in relation to an expulsion pronounced on a player outside of a competition [separate match(es)] or not served during the competition for which they were intended (elimination or the last match in the competition) are carried over as follows:
 - a) PFF competitions for national teams (including age-group competition) shall be carried over to the national team's subsequent official match.
 - b) PFF club competitions shall be carried over to the club's subsequent official match in a PFF competition.
 - c) Friendly matches shall be carried over to the national team's subsequent friendly match.

Section 5 Determining the sanction

Article 40 – General Rule

- 1) The body pronouncing the sanction decides the scope and duration of it.
- 2) Sanctions may be limited to one or more certain categories of match and competition.
- 3) Unless otherwise specified, the duration of a sanction is always defined.
- 4) When deciding the sanction, the body will take account of all of the circumstances of the case, in particular the age of the person sanctioned, his record, personal situation, culpability (intentional or negligent), the reasons prompting him to commit the infringement and the degree of seriousness of the infringement.

Article 41 – Repeated infringements

- 1) Unless otherwise specified, the body shall increase the sanction to be pronounced by half (+50%; if this is not possible, another sanction shall be imposed in the form of a fine) if an infringement has been repeated.
- 2) The sanction may be increased by half only once whenever this provision applies.
- 3) These provisions are subject to the special rules governing repeated doping infringements.

Article 42 – Infringements against match officials

- 1) If the victim of an infringement is a match official, the sanction to be pronounced will be increased by half (+50%).
- 2) This rule does not apply to infringements, which by definition can only be committed against match officials (cf. Art. 56 and 57).

Article 43 – Concurrent infringements

1. If someone incurs several fines as the result of one or several deeds, the body imposes the fine envisaged for the most serious infringement and may increase it according to circumstances but not by more than half of the maximum envisaged for this infringement.
2. The same applies if a person incurs several time sanctions of a similar type (two or more match suspensions, two or more stadium bans, etc) as the result of one or several deeds.
3. The body that applies par.1 is not obliged to adhere to the general upper limit of the fine (cf. art. 16 par.2).

Article 44 – Duration

- 1) Infringements committed during a match may no longer be prosecuted after a lapse of two (2) years.
- 2) Prosecution for corruption (cf. Art. 59) is not subject to a limitation period.

Article 45 – commencement of the limitation period

The limitation period runs as follows:

- a) from the day on which the perpetrator committed the infringement;
- b) if the infringement is recurrent, from the day on which the most recent infringement was committed.
- c) if the infringement lasted a certain period, from the day on which it ended.

Article 46 – Interruption

The limitation period no longer applies if the Disciplinary Committee reaches a decision before it has expired.

Section 1 Physical assaultArticle 47 – Physical injury

- 1) A player who deliberately assaults someone physically or damages his health will be suspended for at least four (4) matches. An official who commits such an infringement will be suspended at least eight (8) matches.
- 2) The suspension shall be imposed at PFF level unless otherwise specified.
- 3) In any case, the body shall also impose a minimum fine of Rs 20,000. In the case of tournaments with an age limit, the fine can be reduced appropriately.

Article 48 – Violence

- 1) A player who deliberately assaults someone, but without harming him physically or damaging his health, will be suspended for at least two (2) matches. An official who commits such an infringement will be suspended at least four (4) matches.
- 2) If a person assaults someone by spitting at him, he will be suspended for at least six (6) matches.
- 3) In any case, the body shall also impose a minimum fine of Rs 10,000. In the case of tournaments with an age limit, the fine can be reduced appropriately.

Article 49 – Brawl

- 1) Involvement in a brawl is sanctioned with a suspension for at least six (6) matches to a maximum of three (3) years.
- 2) The scope of the suspension extends to all official international matches.
- 3) Anyone who has tried to prevent a fight, shield others or separate those involved in a brawl is not subject to punishment.

Article 50 – Unidentified aggressors

- 1) If, in the case of a group of people involved in violence, it is not possible to identify the instigator(s), the body will sanction the club or Member Association to which the aggressors
