

ELECTORAL CONGRESS GUIDELINES

Step 1: Voter Identification & Mobile Collection

- Voters are requested to arrive by 12:30pm for timely registration.
- Upon arrival at the designated hall, voters will present their Original National ID card at the ID verification desk.
- Election officials will verify each voter's identity against the official voter list.
- Once verified, each voter will receive a voter slip, which should be kept throughout the process.
- Voters are kindly asked to deposit their mobile phones at the Mobile Collection Desk. Phones will be returned upon departure after the voting concludes.
- Lunch will be available from 12:30 PM to 1:30 PM upon entering the hall.

Step 2: Seating

- After verification, voters will enter the hall and take their seats.

Step 3: Opening Announcements

- Once all voters are seated, the Master of Ceremony will begin the proceedings.
- Later the Acting General Secretary will then conduct a roll call, review the agenda, and explain the voting process.

Step 4: Voting Process

- Voting will proceed in alphabetical order.
- Voters will be called to the Ballot Issuance Table, where they will receive a ballot paper duly signed/stamped by the EC with a unique Reference ID (RID) for each position.
- An election officer will guide voters to the secret polling booth.
- Voters will mark their choice by placing an X next to their preferred candidate's name, fold the ballot paper, and deposit it into the ballot box.

Step 5: Multiple Rounds of Voting

- The voting process will be conducted in seven (7) rounds, one round for each contested position.
- Voters will receive a new ballot with a unique RID for each round.
- After completing all voting rounds, voters are requested to remain seated until results are announced.

Step 6: Vote Counting

- Once voting ends, the Electoral Committee (EC) will begin counting the ballots for each position, and the vote counting will be conducted in front of everyone to ensure transparency.
- All ballots will be counted manually and verified.

Step 7: Announcement of Results

- The results for each position will be announced immediately after each round of voting.
- After counting, results will be compiled and signed by the Electoral Committee.
- The final results will be officially submitted to FIFA and AFC, and will also be shared across all relevant social media platforms.
